4.03 Employment Practices. Customer is solely responsible for its employment practices, including Customer's use of the Service in its recruiting activities. As such, Customer acknowledges and agrees as follows:

- (a) Test and/or assessment scores from the Service should be only one element of a comprehensive applicant or Employee evaluation process.

Non-U.S. Customers should become familiar with their jurisdiction's employment laws related to bias and discrimination.
- (c) Use of tests or completed video interviews for evaluation of job applicant honesty or integrity is unlawful or restricted in some jurisdictions, and Customer will not use the Service (or specific tests or assessments) where or in a manner prohibited by applicable law.
- (d) Customer, not Company, is responsible for making testing and video interview accommodations for Authorized Users as required by applicable law, including, without limitation, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and EEOC regulations. To inquire about available accommodation support within the Service, Customer shall promptly send an "accommodation request" to help@criteriacorp.com for Criteria Services or for video interviews. Responsibility for compliance remains with Customer whether or not Company assists as set forth above.
- (e) Company has no role in determining or control over the legality, quality, or propriety of Customer's hiring or employment practices.
- (f) Tests and assessments within the Service are not intended for diagnostic or treatment purposes and are not intended for mental health, medical, or other health related purposes.
- (g) Customer, not Company, is responsible for its compliance with any laws or rules governing testing or hiring by government agencies.

4.05 Unauthorized Access. Customer shall take reasonable steps to prevent unauthorized access to the Service, including without limitation by protecting its log-in passwords and other information. Customer will use the same or similar actions as it takes to protect its accounts and other information of similar sensitivity. Customer will immediately notify Company if it becomes aware of or reasonably suspects any unauthorized use of or access to the Service (including Company Content) and commits to use its best efforts to stop such use or access.

4.06 Employment and Recruiting Agencies. Customer will not use the Service to facilitate hiring or retention of Employees other than for its own internal staffing needs, unless it has clearly identified itself as an Employment Agency and has Company's prior written consent to use the Service on behalf of third parties. ("Employment Agency" refers to a recruiting or hiring firm or consultant, employment agency, or other person or entity in the business of assisting with recruiting or hiring.)

- (a) Customer commits to provide Company with at least 30 days advance written notice if it becomes an Employment Agency, including without limitation through merger or acquisition. In such case, Company may elect to terminate this Agreement for convenience without advanced notice.
- (b) If Customer is an Employment Agency and its use of the Service exceeds the limits authorized in the Order, breaches Section 4.02 (Content Restrictions), or in any other way infringes Company's IP rights, we may suspend

Customer's use of the Service or terminate this Agreement, in each case without advanced notice or opportunity to cure. Conduct authorizing suspension or termination pursuant to the preceding sentence includes, without limitation, immaterial excesses, breaches, or infringements. (Customer recognizes and agrees that Employment Agency pricing is based on algorithms that estimate usage based on the size of the agency, industry(ies) served, type and number of positions for which it is recruiting, and the number of Employment Agency customers.)

4.07 TestMaker Content. Customer commits and agrees that it will have all necessary rights and title and/or permission to use TestMaker Content before it is submitted to the Service. Customer will promptly notify Company in writing of any claims relating to TestMaker Content, and will remove any TestMaker Content that is subject to verified claims at Company's request.

When collecting, uploading, downloading, transferring, accessing or sharing any PII in connection with the Service, Customer will abide by all applicable privacy and data protection laws. Customer, not Company, is responsible for its compliance with any applicable laws or rules relating to the privacy and security of Customer Data.

(b) We maintain reasonable administrative, physical, and technical safeguards designed to protect any PII uploaded by Customer to the Service or collected by Company on Customer's behalf ("Customer PII"). Those safeguards will include measures for managing Security Incidents. Before sharing Customer PII with a Service Provider, we expect such Service Provider to have, at a minimum, reasonable data practices for maintaining the confidentiality, security of Customer PII and preventing unauthorized access, and an agreement which imposes obligations no less protective than the obligations of this Agreement. If and to the extent permitted by applicable law, we will (a) promptly notify Customer of any Security Incident, (b) investigate the Security Incident and (c) provide such reasonable assistance to Customer (and any law enforcement or regulatory official) as required to investigate the Security Incident. Customer remains responsible (to the extent permitted by law) for the timing, content, cost and method of any third-party notice requirements that may be triggered by the Security Incident and compliance with applicable laws. Customer is fully responsible for (i) adequate security, protection and backup of Customer Data when in Customer's or its representatives' or agents' possession or control, and (ii) what Authorized Users do with Customer PII.

(c) If Customer is subject to the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 ("CCPA") or other applicable law of the United States governing the use of PII (collectively, "US Privacy Law"); Customer and Company agree and acknowledge that for purposes of US Privacy Law, Company is Customer's "service provider". As such, Company is only authorized to use, retain and disclose Customer PII for the delivery of Services to Customer in accordance with this Agreement, including disclosures to Company's own Service Providers; as well as use for Company's business purposes and as authorized by US Privacy Law. We will refrain from actions that qualify as "selling personal information" (as defined by the CCPA). We will retain Customer PII only for as long as Customer deems it necessary for the permitted purpose, or as required by applicable laws. Upon termination of this Agreement, or upon Customer's written request, we will either destroy or return Customer PII to the Customer, unless legal obligations require storage of the Customer PII. Subject to detailed written request by Customer, we will provide Customer with reasonable assistance for Customer's compliance obligations to respond to requests to delete or access Customer PII required by US Privacy Law. If we receive a verified request for access, information or deletion directly from an authorized person enforcing available rights under applicable US Privacy Law, we will notify Customer of the request and either respond to the request directly or refer the request to Customer. At Customer's option, Customer and we will enter into a Data Protection Addendum located at (<https://www.criteriacorp.com/dpa>).

(d) If Customer is established in the European Economic Area, or any of the Customer Data contains the personal data of individuals in the European Economic Area, to the extent that we act as a processor for that Customer Data, Company and Customer will enter into a Data Protection Addendum located at (<https://www.criteriacorp.com/dpa>), which includes the European Commission's Standard Contract Clauses for the transfer of personal data to processors established in third countries which do not ensure an adequate level of data protection) before Customer's submission of PII through the service.

- (h) frame, deep link or establish unauthorized links to any part of the Service.

4.10 Risks Related to Candidates. Customer recognizes and agrees that: (a) We have no control over or the truth or accuracy of information provided by Candidates or Candidates' integrity or ability to perform job responsibilities; and (b) doing business and communicating through the Service involves inherent risks. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Company makes no representation regarding any such risks, and Customer assumes all risks related to using or having Candidates use the Service.

4.11 ATS License Rights. If Customer elects to use the Service through its ATS, Customer will obtain the necessary rights and permissions for the configuration and/or integration of the ATS with the Service, including access and use by Company. Customer's use of the ATS (including availability) are governed by separate terms established between Customer and the ATS provider. Customer accepts the risk of possible disruptions of the Service outside of Company's control caused by the ATS, including Service disruptions resulting from the suspension or interruption of the ATS. 5.01 Confidential Information Defined.

(a) Company's "Confidential Information" includes but is not limited to: (i) the Company Content; (ii) any pricing or non-standard terms Company offers; (iii) business and marketing plans, technology and technical information, product plans and designs, and business processes; (iv) any other information we provides to Customer and either marks "Confidential" or and orally designates as "Confidential"; and (v) any other nonpublic, sensitive information Customer should reasonably consider a trade secret or otherwise proprietary or confidential.

(b) Customer's "Confidential Information" is (i) Customer's non-public hiring plans. Customer may propose additional Confidential Information by providing a non-confidential written summary thereof, and such information will be Customer's Confidential Information if we accept in writing such proposed disclosure. Except as set forth in Subsection 5.01(b)(i) above, Customer information disclosed without such a summary and acceptance by Company is not Customer's Confidential Information.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information does not include information: (i) in the receiving party's ("Recipient's") possession at the time of original disclosure, without obligation of confidentiality; (ii) independently developed by Recipient without use of or reference to the disclosing party's ("Discloser's") Confidential information; or (iii) that becomes known publicly, before or after disclosure, other than as a result of Recipient's improper action or inaction.

5.02 Nondisclosure. Recipient shall not use Discloser's Confidential Information for any purpose other than to facilitate use and provision of the Service pursuant to this Agreement. Except as specifically authorized in writing in advance by Discloser, Recipient shall not disclose Discloser's Confidential Information to any third party and shall take precautions to prevent unauthorized disclosure, consistent with the precautions it takes to protect its own confidential information of similar nature, but not less than reasonable precautions. Recipient may disclose Discloser's Confidential Information to its Employees and Service Providers who need to know in order to facilitate the purpose of disclosure, provided each such Employee or Service Provider is subject to a reasonable nondisclosure agreement with Recipient. However, Recipient may disclose Discloser's Confidential Information as required by applicable law or by proper legal or government authority, provided it gives Discloser advanced written notice reasonably sufficient to obtain a protective order or otherwise to contest such required disclosure and reasonably cooperates in any such effort. Recipient shall promptly notify Discloser in writing of any known misuse or misappropriation of Discloser's Confidential Information. We are not responsible for misuse of Customer Confidential Information by or through an ATS, including without limitation if we integrate the Service with such ATS.

5.03 Retention of Rights. This Agreement does not transfer ownership of Confidential Information or grant a license thereto. Discloser will retain all right, title, and interest in and to all Confidential Information.

5.04 Exception & Immunity. Pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016, 18 USC Section 1833(b), Recipient is on notice and acknowledges that, notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement:

(a) Immunity. An individual will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any Federal or State trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret that- (A) is made- (i) in confidence to a Federal, State, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and (ii) solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (B) is made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding, if such filing is made under seal.

(b) Use of Trade Secret Information in Anti-Retaliation Lawsuit. An individual who files a lawsuit for retaliation by an employer for reporting a suspected violation of law may disclose the trade secret to the attorney of the individual and use the trade secret information in the court proceeding, if the individual- (A) files any document containing the trade secret under seal; and (B) does not disclose the trade secret, except pursuant to court order.

6. SLA / Service Level Agreement.

6.01 Service Level. We commit that the Service will not materially fall below the Service Obligation. The "Service Obligation" means that the Service will be operational and available to Customer at least 99% of the time during any calendar month (subject to the provisions of this Article 6). If Company does not meet the Service Obligation during any calendar month, we will provide Customer with a Service credit at no charge by extending the Term by a period equal to the duration of the failure to meet the Service Obligation (the "Service Interruption"), plus an additional 30 days (collectively, the "Extension"). The Extension will apply only if Customer notifies Company within 48 hours of a Service Interruption by email to "support@criteriacorp.com" for Criteria services or for video interviews (or to such other address as we may designate), with the email subject "Service Interruption." The additional 30 days will apply to no more than 1 Extension per calendar month.

6.02 Sole Remedy. With the exception of termination pursuant to Section 12.02 below where applicable, this Article 6 provides Customer's sole and exclusive remedy for any failure of the Service to perform as expected or required, even if such remedy fails of its essential purpose. Company does not exclude, restrict or modify any liability that cannot be excluded, restricted or modified, or which cannot be excluded, restricted or modified by law except to a limited extent, as between Company and the Customer by law (including without limitation liability under the Australian Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth)). The Extension may not be exchanged for refunds or other monetary amounts.

6.03 Maintenance. We will exercise reasonable efforts to schedule Service upgrades and routine maintenance (collectively, "Maintenance") outside of normal business hours. Neither Maintenance nor events beyond Company's reasonable control will count toward Service Interruptions or breaches of Company's obligations, and neither will authorize an Extension or other remedy. (As used in the preceding sentence, "events beyond Company's reasonable control" include, without limitation, Force Majeure as defined in Section 13.06 below, failures of Internet backbone providers, and acts or omissions of third parties that are not Company's vendors or agents.) We will notify Customer of Maintenance as early as commercially reasonable via a posting on the Service.

7. Content & IP.

7.01 Company IP. Customer recognizes and agrees that: (a) Company Content and Company IP is the property of Company or its licensors and protected by IP laws; and (b) Customer does not acquire any right, title, or interest in or to the Company Content, Company IP or Company Confidential Information.

7.02 Candidate Information. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Candidates will be required to accept and agree to be bound by the Candidate Terms and Conditions of Use ("Candidate Agreement") prior to accessing the Service and taking any test(s), or video interviews. Subject to the Candidate Agreement and Company Privacy Policy, Company may use Candidate PII: (a) to provide the Service to Customer; and (b) to offer and provide additional Company services directly to Candidates, including, without limitation, test preparation, career services, video interviewing and other job-related services. Subject to the Candidate Agreement and applicable law, Customer may view, download, and retain Score Reports and evaluations provided by the Service during the Term, provided no payments are late and Customer is otherwise in compliance with this Agreement.

7.03 Aggregate & Anonymized Information. Customer acknowledges that Company collects, logs, and aggregates Test Response Data, Optional Data and usage data as part of the normal operation of the Service ("Aggregated Data").

Subject to applicable law, we may use Aggregated Data for purposes of operating the Service as well as the Company business, managing the Service performance and improving the Service as long as the Aggregated Data is anonymized and Company's use does not reveal or disclose any Customer Data, Customer Confidential Information, or PII of Authorized Users.

7.04 Ownership of the Service. We retain all right, title, and interest in and to the Service, Test Response Data, and Optional Data, including, without limitation, all software used in the Service (other than Customer's logos as applicable). This Agreement does not grant Customer any IP rights in or to the Service or any of its components. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this Agreement does not grant Customer a software or trademark license.

8. Online Policies.

8.01 AUP. Customer will comply with the AUP. If Customer or any of its Authorized Users materially violate the AUP, we may suspend or terminate Customer's access to the Service, in addition to relying on any other remedies. Neither this Agreement nor the AUP requires that Company take any action against Customer or any Authorized User or other third party for violating the AUP, but we may take any such action We see fit.

8.02 Privacy Policy. The Privacy Policy applies to Company's websites, application, and the Service, but does not apply to any third-party website or service linked to the Service or recommended or referred to through the Service or by Company's staff.

- (j) it will comply with all applicable laws if it seeks or obtains a consumer report, investigative consumer report, or other background report (collectively, a "Background Report").

Customer recognizes and agrees that Company is not a consumer reporting agency and that, if Company assists Customer in obtaining a Background Report, we do so solely to assist Customer and not for any Company purpose, and we will have no responsibility or liability arising out of or related to such assistance.

10. Indemnification.

10.01 Customer's Indemnifications. Customer will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Company and its Affiliates (as defined in Section 10.04) from any third-party claim, suit, or proceeding arising out or related to Customer's alleged or actual use of, misuse of, or failure to use the Service. Claims, suits, and proceedings described in the preceding sentence exclude claims listed in Section 10.02 below but include: (a) claims by Authorized Users, including without limitation claims alleging any wrongs related to recruitment, hiring, or employment (including those related to Section 4.03 (Hiring Practices), and applicable laws; (b) claims related to Customer violation of applicable law (including privacy obligations); (c) claims alleging that TestMaker Content or other Customer-provided materials used with the Service infringe or violate intellectual property or privacy rights or defame or libel any person or entity; and (d) claims alleging failure of the Service, provided that such failure is not caused by a breach of the Agreement by Company or by Company's willful misconduct.

10.02 Company's IP Indemnification. We will defend and indemnify Customer from any third-party claim, suit, or proceeding arising out of, related to, or alleging infringement of any U.S. patent, copyright, or trade secret by the Service. Company's indemnity obligations do not apply to the extent that a claim, suit, or proceeding arises out of: (a) Customer's breach of this Agreement; (b) Customer's unauthorized use or modification of the Service; (c) Company's modification of the Service in compliance with specifications provided by Customer; or (d) use of the Service in combination with hardware or software not provided by Company.

10.03 Indemnification of ZipRecruiter. The provisions of this Section 10.03 will only apply if Customer has a ZR-Included Order. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Customer agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless Company and its Affiliates (as defined below in Section 10.04) from and against any and all claims, damages, obligations, losses, liabilities, costs or debt, and expenses (including but not limited to all legal fees and expenses) arising out of or related to: (a) Customer's use of and access to ZRCredits (as defined in Section 2.06) or any other product or service provided by ZipRecruiter, Inc. (collectively, the "ZipRecruiter Services"), including any data or content transmitted or received by Customer; (b) Customer's violation of any term of any agreement that it may have with ZipRecruiter, Inc., including without limitation Customer's breach of any of the representations and warranties therein; (c) Customer's violation of any third-party rights, including without limitation any right of privacy or intellectual property rights, in its use of the ZipRecruiter Services; (d) Customer's violation of any applicable law, rule or regulation, including, without limitation, Customer's violation of the US Fair Credit Reporting Act and any applicable data protection laws, in its use of the ZipRecruiter Services; (e) any claims or damages that arise as a result of Customer's content used with the ZipRecruiter Services; (f) any other party's access and use of the ZipRecruiter Services with Customer's account or log-in information; and (g) Customer's intentional or willful misconduct, or negligence in its use of the ZipRecruiter Services.

10.04 Litigation. The claims listed in Sections 10.01, 10.02, and 10.03 are referred to collectively as "Indemnified Claims." The indemnifying party's ("Indemnitor's") obligations pursuant to this Article 10: (a) include retention and payment of attorneys and payment of court costs, as well as settlement at Indemnitor's expense and payment of judgments; and (b) are excused to the extent that the indemnified party's ("Indemnified Party") or its Affiliate's failure to provide prompt notice of the Indemnified Claim or reasonably to cooperate materially prejudices the defense. Indemnitor will control the defense of any Indemnified Claim, including appeals, negotiations, and any settlement or compromise thereof; provided Indemnified Party will have the right, not to be exercised unreasonably, to reject any settlement or compromise that requires that it admit wrongdoing or liability or subjects it to any ongoing affirmative obligations. ("Affiliates" refers to a party's officers, directors, employees, agents, contractors, representatives, suppliers, subsidiaries, parents, affiliated companies, and insurers.)

11. Limitation of Liability. COMPANY WILL NOT BE RESPONSIBLE OR LIABLE FOR ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT: (a) INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES; OR (b) DAMAGES IN EXCESS OF (a) THE FEES PAID BY CUSTOMER FOR THE SERVICE DURING THE 12-MONTH PERIOD PRECEDING THE INJURY GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM, or (b) USD$5,000-WHICHEVER IS GREATER. THE LIABILITIES LIMITED BY THE PRECEDING SENTENCE APPLY: (i) TO LIABILITY FOR NEGLIGENCE; (ii) REGARDLESS OF THE FORM OF ACTION, WHETHER IN CONTRACT, TORT, STRICT PRODUCT LIABILITY, OR OTHERWISE; (iii) EVEN IF COMPANY IS ADVISED IN ADVANCE OF THE POSSIBILITY OF THE DAMAGES IN QUESTION AND EVEN IF SUCH DAMAGES WERE FORESEEABLE; AND (iv) EVEN IF CUSTOMER'S REMEDIES FAIL OF THEIR ESSENTIAL PURPOSE.. If applicable law limits the application of the provisions of this Article 11, Company's liability will be limited to the maximum extent permissible. For the avoidance of doubt, Company's liability limits and other rights set forth in this Article 11 apply likewise to Company's Affiliates, licensors, suppliers, advertisers, agents, sponsors, directors, officers, employees, consultants, and other representatives.

12. Term & Termination.

12.01 Term. The term of this Agreement (the "Term") begins on the Effective Date and continues until the end of the Service subscription in the Order.

12.02 Suspension & Termination for Cause. Company may suspend Customer's access to the Service for Customer's breach of this Agreement, until such breach is cured, or if in Company's reasonable opinion, Customer has caused damage (whether permanent or not) to the Service, including but not limited to the corruption of data, files or code. Either party may terminate this Agreement for the other's material breach of this Agreement on 30 days' written notice, unless the other party cures such breach before the effective date of termination.

12.03 Effects of Termination. The following provisions will survive termination or expiration of this Agreement: (a) obligations of Customer to pay for Service; (b) Sections and Articles 4, 5, 7, 9, 10, 11, and 13 of this Agreement; and (c) any other provision that must survive to fulfill its essential purpose. Early termination, including without limitation pursuant to Section 4.06 (Employment and Recruiting Agencies) or 13.7 (Assignment & Successors), does not require that Company refund any fees and does not release Customer's obligation to pay fees already incurred.

12.04 Customer Data Following Expiration or Termination. After termination or expiration of this Agreement, Customer will no longer have access to Customer's account(s) associated with the Agreement. Customer shall have 90 days in which to either renew the Service subscription to retain Customer Data and TestMaker Data or provide written instructions to Company to delete such data. If no written instructions are received from Customer, we will delete all such data from the Service, unless legally required to retain it.

13. Miscellaneous.

13.01 Notices. We may send notices pursuant to this Agreement to Customer's email contacts provided by Customer, and such notices will be deemed received 24 hours after they are sent. Customer will send notices pursuant to this Agreement by nationally recognized overnight courier to Company's address as set forth below or such other address as We may designate in writing.

To Criteria Corp: Chief Operating Officer, Criteria, 750 North San Vicente Blvd. Suite 1500 East Tower, West Hollywood, CA 90069.

To Revelian and Alcam: Chief Revenue Officer, Revelian Pty Ltd 1/21 Windorah St Stafford QLD 4053, with a copy to the Chief Operating Officer, Criteria, 750 North San Vicente Blvd. Suite 1500 East Tower, West Hollywood, CA 90069.

13.02 Publicity. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this Agreement, We may include Customer's name and logo on our published customer lists, unless Customer notifies Company in writing that it does not wish to be included.

13.03 Revision of Privacy Policy & AUP. We may revise the AUP or Privacy Policy from time to time by posting a revised version on our website, provided no such revisions will be effective during the then-current Term if it materially reduces Customer's rights or increases its obligations. Customer's continued use of the Service after such amendment becomes effective will confirm Customer's consent thereto.

13.04 Independent Contractors. The parties are independent contractors and will so represent themselves in all regards. Neither party is the agent of the other, and neither may bind the other in any way.

13.05 Injunctions. Each party agrees that breach of the provisions of Sections 4.02 (Content Rights), 4.09 (Technology Restrictions), or 5.02 (Nondisclosure) above would cause the injured irreparable injury for which monetary relief would not provide adequate compensation, and that in addition to any other remedies available, the injured will be entitled to seek preliminary, temporary, and permanent injunctive relief against such breach or threatened breach, without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting bond or other security.

13.06 Force Majeure. To the extent caused by hurricane, earthquake, other natural disaster or act of God, terrorism, war, labor unrest, general failure of the Internet or of communications systems, or other forces beyond the performing party's reasonable control (collectively, "Force Majeure"), no delay, failure, or default, other than Customer's failure to make payments when due, will constitute a breach of this Agreement. The time for performance shall be extended for a period equal to the duration of the Force Majeure event. The performing party shall use reasonable efforts to minimize the delays, to notify the other party promptly, and to inform the other party of its plans to resume performance.

13.07 Assignment & Successors. Neither party may assign or transfer this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, without the other party's prior written consent; provided however that a party may assign or transfer this Agreement or such rights and obligations hereunder without such consent to its parent, subsidiary or affiliate or to a third party acquiring substantially all of its assets. Any attempted assignment or transfer without such consent shall be null and void. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties' respective successors and assigns. We may suspend or terminate this Agreement for convenience on 10 business days' notice in the event of an increase in Customer's Employee-count resulting from an assignment, acquisition, merger, capital injection, investment, or other factor that we reasonably consider not to constitute typical growth.

13.08 Dispute Resolution. (a) This Agreement shall be governed solely by the internal laws of the State of California without reference to any principle of conflicts of law that would apply the substantive laws of another jurisdiction to the parties' rights or duties. The parties consent to the personal and exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts of Los Angeles, California. (b) To the extent permitted under the applicable law, the parties agree that each may bring claims against the other only in their individual capacity and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class action or representative action. Unless both parties agree, no judge or arbitrator may consolidate more than one person's (or entity's) claims or otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class action proceeding.

13.09 Construction. This Agreement governs a single order for the Service and not any renewal of such order or future order. Customer understands that renewal orders and future orders will be subject to Company's then-current Terms and Conditions of Use, which may not be identical to this version of the Terms and Conditions of Use. Neither party will be deemed to have waived any of its rights under this Agreement by lapse of time or by any statement or representation other than in an explicit written waiver signed by such party. No waiver of a breach of this Agreement will constitute a waiver of any prior or subsequent breach of this Agreement. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties hereby waive any provision of law that would render any clause of this Agreement invalid or otherwise unenforceable in any respect. In the event that a provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or otherwise unenforceable, such provision will be interpreted to fulfill its intended purpose to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect. In the event of any conflict between this Agreement and any Company policy posted online, including without limitation the AUP or Privacy Policy (both as defined in Article 8), the terms of this Agreement will govern. This Agreement sets forth the entire agreement of the parties and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous writings, negotiations, and discussions with respect to the subject matter hereof. No terms referenced, linked or pre-printed on any Customer document—including a purchase order, proposal or ordering document, will have any effect on the terms of this Agreement and are hereby rejected, including where the Customer document is signed by Company.

13.10 Amendment. Company may amend this Agreement from time to time by posting an amended version at its website. If changes to this Agreement will materially reduce Customer's rights or materially increase Customer's obligations, then Company will provide Customer with advance written notice of such changes. All such changes will be deemed accepted and become effective 30 days after Company's notice (the "Proposed Amendment Date") unless Customer first gives Company written notice of rejection of the change. In the event of such rejection: (a) this Agreement will continue under its original provisions; and (b) Customer shall not use any new feature or functionality governed by the proposed amended terms but not by the original terms of this Agreement. Customer's continued use of the Service following the effective date of any change will confirm Customer's consent thereto. This Agreement may not be amended in any other way except through a written agreement by authorized representatives of each party.

13.11 Export Laws. Each party will comply with the export laws and regulations of the United States and other applicable jurisdictions in providing and using the Service. Customer also represents that it is not named on any U.S. government denied-party list, and will not make the Service available to any Authorized User or entity that is located in a country that is subject to a U.S. government embargo, or is listed on any U.S. government list of prohibited or restricted parties.
